NEW ORLEANS

BRUNO MOINARD

Two designers with lines on their mind intersect via rugs for Chevalier Édition. Bruno Moinard, who began his career under the tutelage of Interior Design Hall of Fame member Andrée Putman, offers approachable minimalism in the New Orleans series. Sarah Lavoine, meanwhile, taps into Moroccan motifs as well as the geometry of kilims and fishing nets for Mogador, named for the city now known as Essaouira. Both groups comprise five patterns hand-knotted in a choice of wool, silk, or a combination thereof. They can also be customized in terms of color and size.
